DANNER MINIMUM RETAIL PRICING POLICY

Danner, Inc. manufactures, distributes and markets high-quality footwear products. These products require high levels of service to ensure that the consumer is fitted appropriately with the correct footwear. In an effort to ensure that retailers will be able to maintain the high level of service required, Danner has instituted a Minimum Retail Pricing policy that will be in effect from and after January 1, 2000. This applies to physical retail locations, catalog and website retail venues. It is the policy of Danner, Inc. to discontinue business with retail customers that sell Danner products below Danner's published Suggested Minimum Retail Price. When Danner becomes aware of such pricing, Danner reserves the right to decline to sell the retailer involved any more products of the style or styles affected. If the retailer makes further sales below the published Suggested Minimum Retail Price, Danner reserves the right to close the retailer's account with respect to all styles and may accept no further orders for any Danner products.

This is a unilateral statement of Danner's policy and the implementation of that policy will likewise be unilateral. Retailers are free to sell Danner products at any price they choose, but should be aware that the consequence of selling those products below Danner's Suggested Minimum Retail Price include discontinuation of affected styles and, ultimately, loss of Danner account status.

The following activities will not be construed to be in violation of Danner's Minimum Retail Price policy:

- Sales to store employees for personal use.
- Year round store-wide loyalty programs.
- Sale of close-out, discontinued or otherwise distressed merchandise.
- Seasonal (once every six months) short sales and promotions. Sales/promotions not to exceed 14 days, and length of sales must be clearly stated in dealer literature
- Sales by Government agencies or departments for provision or resale to employees of those departments in connection with their official duties.
- Quantity discounts for bids issued by Federal, State, local or other government agencies.

Danner has taken such measures as it deems appropriate to keep itself informed about pricing activities of retailers who purchase its products. Danner does not seek and will not accept communications from retailers or other third parties about the pricing activity of retailers selling Danner products. Danner employees are under instructions not to solicit, receive, or follow-up on such communications. Written communications on that topic will be returned without review.

Danner, Inc. allows its dealers to take advantage of sales via their own custom website/website – however, it is critical that prior approval and review of all policies pertaining to Danner, Inc. and its brands be reviewed to ensure compliance with all Danner, Inc.'s corporate standards. The following outlines Danner, Inc.'s Internet Policy:

1. Any e-commerce or content website containing Danner, Inc. product(s) and/or information (Danner or LaCrosse) must be approved as such and will be treated like any new physical location -

An open retail door does not automatically authorize you to sell Danner and LaCrosse products on-line.

2. A dealer or distributor site should be easily identifiable as a site belonging to the specific dealer or distributor and cannot be represented as part of Danner, Inc. Use of a domain name should not contain reference to any specific Danner, Inc. brand.

3. All on-line product imagery, logos, affiliate logos and policy documents used must be provided by or approved by Danner, Inc. Use to be per documented graphic standards provided by Danner, Inc. and be pre-approved by Danner, Inc. before going live line.

4. Information and HTML or other source code on any Danner, Inc. site may not be duplicated, or directly copied.

5. Use of affiliate logo's and reference must comply with the specific affiliates copyright policies.

6. Links to any Danner, Inc. site will be allowed, however, notification to the Danner, Inc E-commerce Webmaster must be provided in advance of the use of the link.

7. MRP policies must be strictly complied with. Action taken by Danner, Inc. will be taken unilaterally and could include terminating both the on-line account as well as the brick-and-mortar operation. *See Danner MRP Guidelines for details.

8. Danner, Inc. reserves the right to terminate an account's on-line business at our discretion.

9. An on-line retailer must take possession of a core assortment of inventory. Danner, Inc. will not fulfill drop-ship orders that make up more than 35% of the retailer's business.
